FERN AND M'CANDLESS MEN RECOGNIZE THE PARTY SPLIT

Mayor Fern's candidacy for Delegate and its consequent influence on L. L. McCandless' prospects were referred to very pointedly last night at a meeting of the Democratic Territorial central committee, held at Bourbon headquarters at Nuuanu and Pauahi streets.

Charles Barron, the "soap-box orator," and an avowed McCandless man, was the speaker, and his pointed remarks were directed at B. G. Rivenburgh, the mayor's secretary and regarded as the man just now directing his political campaign. While Barron was hurling significant allusions at Rivenburgh, Mayor Fern, as chairman of the central committee, sat and listened calmly, and Rivenburgh listened calmly also. Barron's thrusts were not answered in any way, except that, when the orator had finished, Rivenburgh murmured somewhat satirically, "Loud applause from the gallery!"

Barron's theme was party harmony. After the committee had finished its business and was about to adjourn, Chairman Fern called for remarks on the good of the party. Barron was the last speaker. He declared that the Republican party is badly split, its leaders involved in factional warfare, and that Democracy has a splendid chance to win the coming campaign. "The Republican leaders will do everything in their power to cause a split in the ranks of the Democrats," he said, "and it's up to us to stop any such split. We've got to sink personal feelings for the good of the party."

"No attention should be paid to those attempting, for one reason or another, to break up the party. People with axes to grind should grind them on their own necks." He said that now that the Democrats have a good chance to win, it is the height of folly for those looking for advancement for personal gain only to attempt to break into the party's program.

This is the first open admission the McCandless supporters have made that they are regarding Fern's candidacy as serious. But the strength Fern has rallied during the week has made some of them at least nervous and has irritated all of the McCandless men.

Last night's meeting had little but routine business. Rivenburgh, who was appointed a committee of one to investigate the charge that City Clerk Kalaokalani has been furnishing the Republican campaign forces with lists of the voters registering at the city hall, reported that Kalaokalani had denied any such action, and recommended that the Democratic leaders use their energy in getting Democrats registered and later in making up their poll-books from the completed list.

Chairman Fern appointed T. J. Ryan, John Edinger and L. L. McCandless a conference committee of three to confer with Republicans as to holding their nominations, primaries and Territorial conventions on the same date, thus eliminating the back-and-forth voting that has been troublesome in the past.

The Territorial secretary, George Keawehaku, was instructed to get busy and jog up the county committees to vigorous preparation for the campaign.

Trent for Mayor?

After the Territorial committee meeting was over last night, the McCandless people went down to the Occidental Hotel and took in a precinct meeting. Rivenburgh was not present and this brought out more pointed allusions.

The meeting last night brought another phase of the situation up, however, when the name of R. H. Trent, former county treasurer, was mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate for mayor in case Fern should be the nominee for Delegate. This bit of gossip was referred to by Mr. McCandless, and although it has been talked of quietly for some time, it appears to be the first time it has been made a public subject.

FEDERAL JURY LISTS ARE OUT

Plain "Joe" is how the Federal authorities designate "Hizzoner" Honorable Joseph J. Fern, Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu, and in this guise he has been drawn to act as one of the petit jurors for the next term, the list for which was drawn this morning. On the same list with him is his secretary, Bertram G. Rivenburgh.

Also on the list is S. K. Fukumura, who has the distinction of being the second Hawaiian-born Japanese to be drawn for a position. On the list for the grand jury is James A. Rath among others. Several of those drawn may, if they wish, be exempted, owing to holding down government jobs, but the privilege will not be exercised until they are called in April next. The lists are given below:

Grand Jury, returnable May 6—William Savidge, Honolulu; Geo. W. Clarke, Honolulu; William J. Forbes, Honolulu; Jean Abadie, Honolulu; Richard E. Wright, Honolulu; John K. Gandall, Lihue, Kauai; M. cial is diametrically opposite. The girl says that Levy came into her cell dressed in a khaki suit and that the time was just before 11 o'clock at night.

"Joseph, who occupies a cell at the top of the stairs and just near the entrance to the women's section, says that he saw Levy about ten minutes to 11 o'clock and that he heard the chain rattle as Levy opened the door leading into the women's section."

"The evidence given by the guards and the other officials is that Levy was dressed in his pajamas and that during the time he is charged with being in the woman's cell he was downstairs with them."

As to Joseph's testimony, a Bulletin reporter went into his cell this morning and tried to see the door leading to the woman's section through the wicket. It was impossible to do so, however, as all that could be seen was a couple of bars of the grating. Joseph also says that although he saw Levy near the woman's section he did not look after he had first caught sight of him but that he heard the chain rattle.

Downstairs, where the other guards are stationed the slightest sound can be heard at night and the men in charge there state that they heard nothing.

Jailor Asch says he reiterated the facts to Supervisor Eben Low only a few nights ago and placed the whole situation before him. Nothing can be done, states the jailor, unless the jail is taken out of the control of the City and County.

Sheriff Jarrett has now taken up the matter, however, and it is believed that some changes are likely to come very soon and that fresh faces will be seen about the jail.

Levy comes up for plea on March 15 and his case will be looked after by Attorney Lorrin Andrews.
